

Troopers Arrest Pair for Pawning Stolen Jewelry – New Castle

New Castle – The Delaware State Police have arrested Juan Caride-Hernandez, 58, of Felton and Daisy Mae Perez, 22, of Wilmington, for their involvement in the pawning of stolen jewelry, that was taken during a burglary in Pennsylvania which is being investigated by the Southern Chester County Regional Police Department.

The investigation was able to determine that on three separate dates in October and November, 2018 Perez pawned jewelry with an approximate value of $190,000.00, at the Cash-In Jewelry and Pawn, located at 1560 N. DuPont Hwy., New Castle. Caride-Hernandez who is the proprietor of the business, accepted the jewelry from Perez and after being advised by law enforcement that it was stolen, failed to follow proper procedure by retaining and surrendering the property. At this time the jewelry has not been recovered.

On Wednesday, December 12, 2018, Perez was charged with Selling Stolen Property Greater than $1500.00. She was arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court #2 and released after posting $5000.00 secured bail.

On Thursday, December 13, 2018 Caride-Hernandez was charged with one count each of Receiving Stolen Property Greater than $1500.00, Tampering with Evidence and Hindering Prosecution. He was arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court #2 and released on $5000.00 unsecured bail.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact Detective B. Harris at Troop by calling 302-365-8410.
